Looks good, only thing I saw was 'headspace' when describing 'activity based' sampling. May want to do a ( ) saying what headspace is . . . e.g., mercury vapor or fumes.

Wes:

When you have time, please take a look at POLREP No. 3 for Hood Mercury.... If there is anything in there that you don't like, just let me know... once you approve, I will make it public.

No rush.

Thanks!
